

TALK OF THE TOWN

Miss Mildred Clark of Edgewood was the week-end guest of relatives in Northfield.

The Rebekahs will hold a public 500 party in I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission, 10c.

Kenneth McRae left yesterday for New York on a business trip in the interests of the Union Dry Goods store.

A daughter was born at the City hospital Sunday, Feb. 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Jackson of 29 South Main street.

Lieut. Gov. Hale K. Darling, returned to Barre Saturday from Burlington, where he was one of the guests at the annual meeting of the Vermont Press association Friday evening.

The regular rehearsal of the Montpelier Choral society will be held in the city hall, Montpelier, Tuesday, the 22d, at 8 p. m. Members are requested to bring names of new members and hand to Mrs. H. L. Dean, chairman membership committee.

Charles T. Southgate, ticket agent at the M. & W. R. passenger station, is substituting for the agent at Groton while the latter is acting in a temporary vacancy at the Montpelier station. During Mr. Southgate's absence the Barre office is in charge of James N. Gull of the Barre & Chelsea railroad and Walter Milne, who is relieved temporarily from his duties in the M. & W. R. freight office.

"Bringing Up Father," Gus Hill's musical comedy farce, based on the famous cartoons of George McManus, appearing in many of the leading newspapers, made its second appearance in the opera house Saturday afternoon and evening before only fair-sized audiences. But those who were there were willing to acknowledge that there is still a laugh left in the inimitable Jiggs Mahoney. The cast was practically the same as that which appeared here last season as was also the musical score. The scenery and costumes were of the high order and, together with the electrical effects, the performance was one to be enjoyed. Among those who injected laughter into the piece were John E. Cain and Lida Kane as Jiggs Mahoney and Mrs. Mahoney. Dave Conroy as Mrs. Sullivan from Dubuque and Robert Rice as Oswald, the elongated butler, better known as "Ossie" or "Flo-sie." The company remained in the city over Sunday, leaving on the late afternoon train for Montreal for a two weeks' engagement.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Dr. and Mrs. Paiement and daughter, Cecile, have returned from a visit in Montreal.

Mrs. Paul D. Leavitt of East street left this morning on a few days' visit to St. Johnsbury.

Angus A. Smith of Perry street has returned to the city, after spending several weeks in Montreal, P. Q., on business.

Manager C. F. Millar of the Consolidated Lighting Co. returned to the city this morning from Boston, where he was summoned 10 days ago by the death of his father, C. C. Millar.

Dr. B. H. Stone and his assistant, Dr. C. F. Whitney, of the state laboratory of hygiene, who came to the city yesterday to perform an autopsy on the remains of Richard Chard, returned to their home in Burlington last evening. The state pathologist and his assistant were asked to make the post-mortem examination by the state's attorney and the attorney general. In referring to the practice of going about the state for examinations ordered by the authorities, Dr. Stone stated that he had completed a minute record of more than 1,600 cases where the circumstances surrounding death had made autopsies necessary.

At the close of the prohibition mass meeting in the opera house Sunday afternoon a number of local temperance workers got together and decided to engage another nationally known prohibition advocate in the person of Ex-Governor Hanley of Indiana, who is to reserve a speaking date for Barre on the evening of Saturday, March 4. The meeting will be held in the opera house and efforts will be made to make the gathering a large one. Necessary financial support for the ex-governor's visit was pledged yesterday. It will be recalled that Mr. Hanley spoke on temperance measures in the Heddington Methodist church one night last winter. A "no" mass meeting, to be held in the opera house on the Sunday night preceding election day is also contemplated by the local committee. It is proposed to secure five local speakers to discuss several phases of the saloon question in Barre.

Officials for the big basketball game to be played at the Church street gymnasium Thursday evening between the Shamrock A. C. of Barre and the Bellows Falls team, two of the strongest contenders for the state championship, are to be chosen at a meeting of representatives of the contenders this evening. Posters announce that the game is to be decisive, in that its outcome will go along way toward deciding the state honors. The Bellows Falls aggregation has submitted the following line-up: Guards, Kemple and Burch; center, Manning; forwards, Fountain and Lindstrom. The Shamrocks are to start with Grady and Tomasi in the guard positions. Stuart and Ogston at the fore and Carroll at center with J. Carroll and "Mecca" Smith in reserve.

C. F. Smith, auctioneer, was in Calais last Thursday holding an auction sale for H. J. Slayton of this city of the A. O. Slayton farm and personal property, everything being sold except the farm. An unusually large crowd was in attendance and the sale was considered an exceptionally good one. Twenty-three small grade Jersey cows sold from $30 to $60 per head, young cattle, two-year-olds, yearlings and calves brought exceptionally good prices; medium quality hay in the barn $10.50 to $12.50 per ton, ensilage $3.75 per ton, 75 small Leghorn hens sold for 70 cents each, farm tools, large and small, wood and lumber brought satisfactory prices. Mr. Smith was in Graniteville last Saturday afternoon holding an auction sale for R. W. Johnston of lively stock, farm tools and household furniture. Notwithstanding the cold, disagreeable weather and one of the worst days of the season to be out, a good-sized crowd lined up and the sale was a lively one, everything bringing most satisfactory prices.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The new things in neckwear from the McWhorter Co.

To-morrow being Washington's birthday, the public schools will be closed all day, although classes will meet as usual at Goddard seminary. Banks and a number of business offices plan to observe the holiday by closing.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Large showing of spring suits at Abbott's.

The McWhorter Co. are agents in Barre for Hopedale hosiery, guaranteed. Miss Glens Libby of Montgomery was a week-end visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Westcott, of Nelson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Falchetti and Dino Poletti were called to Bethel yesterday by the death of Mr. Falchetti's mother, Mrs. Maria Falchetti.

Attention, Macabees! All members intending to go on the sleigh ride Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, should notify Mrs. Jessie Lund, telephone 418-4, before 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Special on Rogers silver—six teaspoons, 66c; knives and forks and all other Rogers silver as low accordingly. Get some before it is all gone. D. A. Perry, assignee at Kenyon store.—adv.

The Sons of Veterans Auxiliary will hold a dance in auxiliary hall, Worthen block, Tuesday, Feb. 22, dancing from 8 to 12; Goldies' four-piece orchestra; 50c per couple. Everybody invited.

News was received in the city yesterday of the death of Mrs. Maria Falchetti, which occurred at her home in Bethel yesterday morning. Mrs. Falchetti was a former resident of Barre and leaves four children, two of whom, Louis and Emilio, reside in this city. A daughter resides in Bethel and another son is a resident of San Antonio, Tex. The deceased was 78 years of age. Funeral arrangements are not yet completed, but it is probable that the body will be brought here for burial.

Woman's Club Notes.

The program for gentlemen's night, Feb. 22, is as follows: Two readings by Miss Florence Hinckley, instructor of elocution at Montpelier seminary, "Her First Appearance," by Richard Harding Davis, and "A Spinner in the Sun," by Myrtle Reed (arranged). Mrs. Bella Cantlay Hall and Louis H. Baine will each sing a solo. The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock and last about an hour, followed by dancing. Music will be furnished by Carroll's orchestra.

The nature study class of the Woman's club will meet Monday evening, Feb. 21, with Mrs. E. M. Lyon, 27 Highland avenue. The following Burroughs program will be given: Quotations from Burroughs, class; "Our Greatest Descriptive Naturalist," Miss Sweet; "What Prominent Critics Say of John Burroughs," the class; "Roverby-on-the-Hudson," Woodchuck Lodge and Slabides; Mrs. Lyon; "Why I Enjoy the Writings of John Burroughs," Mrs. Phelps; "Burroughs and Other Authors," Mrs. Morrison; "Nature Notes," Miss Carleton; nature club questions, the class.

Still a Resident of Barre.

Editor, Barre Daily Times: In today's issue of The Times, I notice you speak of my being a "resident of Lowell, Mass." That is certainly incorrect, as I still maintain my home in Barre at 8 Hall street, and expect to remain a citizen of this city and the good state of Vermont for the present at least.

I kindly ask you to publish this to correct the above error.

Yours truly,

Herbert A. Rugg.
Barre, Vt., Feb. 18, 1916.
